Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)

Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) is a nutrition program that provides education, healthy food, and other services to eligible families.

WIC's primary goal is to help keep pregnant and breastfeeding women, new moms, and children up to five years of age healthy, by providing:

- Personalized nutrition information
- and support
- EBT card to buy healthy food
- Tips for eating well to improve health
- Referrals for services that can benefit the whole family
- Breastfeeding support
- Immunization screening & referral
- Nutrition & health classes

Services are by appointment only.
Eligibility can be determined over the phone.
